FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Poms & Associates Insurance Brokers, Inc. Announces Addition of Casey Clausen Casey Clausen has joined the Property & Casualty starting lineup.

Woodland Hills, CA – February 14, 2007 – Poms & Associates Insurance Brokers Inc. is pleased to announce the addition of a new professional to our Woodland Hills corporate headquarters. Mr. Casey Clausen has recently joined us in the role of Account Executive for the Property & Casualty department. Casey's services will include all lines of Property & Casualty business insurance coverage.

Casey grew up in Northridge, California and attended Bishop Alemany High School before becoming the starting quarterback for the University of Tennessee. He finished his career with a 34-10 record and was the 2002 Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl MVP. In 2004, Casey went pro and signed as a free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs.

While pursuing football, he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Tennessee and his master's degree from Mississippi State University. Following his return to his native California, Casey received his insurance licensing.

Poms & Associates has been providing commercial insurance, employee benefits and risk management services since 1991. Headquartered in Woodland Hills, California, our services are available nationwide.
