Poms & Associates Quoted in San Fernando Valley Business Journal Discussing Poms Risk Organizer (PRO) Software

Tim Karcz, director of risk services and Phillip Combest, senior manager of risk services, were quoted in the San Fernando Valley Business Journal article, "Brokers Boost Customer Service Through Technology" commenting on the benefits of Poms & Associates' recently launched Poms Risk Organizer (PRO) software. The online database allows Poms & Associates to provide clients with risk management reports in a faster, more cost-effective manner thereby, reducing paper, mailing and packaging expenses, in addition to potentially lowering insurance premiums. Clients can login and sort their reports by categories and compare areas of loss. PRO has allowed Poms & Associates to internally increase its risk division productivity by 11 percent and decrease new consultants training time by 40 percent. PRO was developed with the intent to extend similar savings to Poms & Associates' clients.
